

GDPR CANDIDATE PRIVACY NOTICE (Germany)

1. What is the purpose of this document?

IQPC Gesellschaft für Management Konferenzen mbH, Friedrichstraße 94, 10117 Berlin, phone: +493020913274, is a "data controller". This means that we are responsible for deciding how we hold and use personal information about you. You are being sent a copy of this privacy notice because you are applying for work with us or have been contacted by us for a suitable work opportunity (whether as an employee, worker or contractor). It makes you aware of how and why your personal data will be used, namely for the purposes of the recruitment exercise, and how long it will usually be retained for. It provides you with certain information that must be provided under the General Data Protection Regulation ((EU) 2016/679) (GDPR).

2. Data protection principles

We will comply with data protection law and principles, which means that your data will be:

- Used lawfully, fairly and in a transparent way.
- Collected only for valid purposes that we have clearly explained to you and not used in any way that is incompatible with those purposes.
- Relevant to the purposes we have told you about and limited only to those purposes.
- Accurate and kept up to date.
- Kept only as long as necessary for the purposes we have told you about.
- Kept securely.

3. The kind of information we hold about you

In connection with your application for work with us, we will process the following categories of personal information about you:

- The information you have provided to us in your curriculum vitae and covering letter.
- The information you have provided on our application form, including name, title, address, telephone number, personal email address, date of birth, gender, employment history, qualifications. Any information you provide to us during an interview.

We may also collect, store and use the following "special categories" of more sensitive personal information:

4. How is your personal information collected?

We collect personal information about candidates from the following sources:

- You, the candidate.
- Recruitment agencies we have agreed terms in place with
- Professional networking profile

- Your named referees

5. How we will use information about you

We will use the personal information we collect about you to:

- Assess your skills, qualifications, and suitability for the role.
- Carry out background and reference checks, where applicable.
- Communicate with you about the recruitment process.
- Keep records related to our hiring processes.
- Comply with legal or regulatory requirements.

We also need to process your personal information to decide whether to enter into a contract of employment with you.

Having received your CV and cover letter and/or your application form, we will then process that information to decide whether you meet the basic requirements to be telephone screened by our in-house recruitment team for the role. If you do, we will decide whether your application is strong enough to invite you for a first stage interview. If we decide to call you for an interview, we will use the information you provide to us at the interview to decide whether to offer you the role. If we decide to offer you the role, we will then take up references before confirming your appointment.

6. If you fail to provide personal information

If you fail to provide information when requested, which is necessary for us to consider your application (such as evidence of qualifications or work history), we will not be able to process your application successfully. For example, if we require a credit check or references for this role and you fail to provide us with relevant details, we will not be able to take your application further.

7. We will use your particularly sensitive personal information in the following ways:

- If you tell us about a disability, we will use information about your disability to consider whether we need to provide appropriate adjustments during the recruitment process, for example whether adjustments need to be made during a test or interview.

8. What is the legal basis for processing your data?

The legal basis for the processing of your data is art. 6 par. 1 lit. b GDPR in conjunction with § 26 par. 1 BDSG. In case you have given consent the legal basis is art. 6 par. 1 lit. a, 7 GDPR in conjunction with § 26 Abs. 2 BDSG. If we process special categories of personal data pursuant to art. 9 par. 1 GDPR the legal basis is art. 9 par. 2 lit. b GDPR in conjunction with § 26 par. 3 BDSG

9. Automated decision-making

You will not be subject to decisions that will have a significant impact on you based solely on automated decision-making.

10. Data sharing

9.1 Why might we share your personal information with third parties?

We will only share your personal information with the following third parties for the purposes of processing your application. In case we consider our other group companies may have other relevant vacancies we ask you for your consent to forward your application to the other group companies. We engage service providers (data processors) that process the personal data only on instructions from us. All our third-party service providers and other entities in the group are required to take appropriate security measures to protect your personal information in line with our policies. We do not allow our third-party service providers to use your personal data for their own purposes. We only permit them to process your personal data for specified purposes and in accordance with our instructions.

9.2 Data security

We have put in place appropriate security measures to prevent your personal information from being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way, altered or disclosed. In addition, we limit access to your personal information to those employees, agents, contractors and other third parties who have a business need-to-know. They will only process your personal information on our instructions and they are subject to a duty of confidentiality.

We have put in place procedures to deal with any suspected data security breach and will notify you and any applicable regulator of a suspected breach where we are legally required to do so.

10. Data retention

10.1 How long will we process your data?

We will retain your personal information for a period of 6 months after we have communicated to you our decision about whether to appoint you to role. We retain your personal information for that period so that we can show, in the event of a legal claim, that we have not discriminated against candidates on prohibited grounds and that we have conducted the recruitment exercise in a fair and transparent way. After this period, we will securely destroy your personal information in accordance with applicable laws and regulations. In case your CV and application is still interesting for any suitable alternative roles that arise we ask you for your consent to retain it longer.

11. Rights of access, correction, erasure, and restriction

11.1 Your rights in connection with personal information

Under certain circumstances, by law you have the right to:

- Request access to your personal information (commonly known as a "data subject access request"). This enables you to receive a copy of the personal information we hold about you and to check that we are lawfully processing it.
- Request correction of the personal information that we hold about you. This enables you to have any incomplete or inaccurate information we hold about you corrected.
- Request erasure of your personal information. This enables you to ask us to delete or remove personal information where there is no good reason for us continuing to process it. You also have the right to ask us to delete or remove your personal information where you have exercised your right to object to processing (see below).
- Object to processing of your personal information where we are relying on a legitimate interest (or those of a third party) and there is something about your particular situation which makes you want to object to processing on this ground. You also have the right to object where we are processing your personal information for direct marketing purposes.
- Request the restriction of processing of your personal information. This enables you to ask us to suspend the processing of personal information about you, for example if you want us to establish its accuracy or the reason for processing it.

- Request the transfer of your personal information to another party.

If you want to review, verify, correct or request erasure of your personal information, object to the processing of your personal data, or request that we transfer a copy of your personal information to another party, please contact Human Resources in writing.

11.2 Right to withdraw consent

In case you have given a consent you have the right to withdraw your consent for processing for that purpose at any time. To withdraw your consent, please contact the Recruitment Manager. Once we have received notification that you have withdrawn your consent, we will no longer process your application and, subject to our policies, we will dispose of your personal data securely.

11.3 Data protection officer and supervisory authority

We have appointed a data protection officer (DPO). The contact details are: datenschutz nord GmbH, Konsul-Smidt-Straße 88, 28217 Bremen, office@datenschutz-nord.de.

You have the right to make a complaint at any time to the supervisory authority. The supervisory authority concerned is: Berliner Beauftragte für Datenschutz und Informationsfreiheit, Friedrichstraße 219, 10969 Berlin.
